Winter 2012 - Afternoon Classes

Classes Start Monday Jan 23 & Wednesday Jan 25

Capoeria 2:00-2:45 (Wed), $15/class

Capoeria is an Afro-Brazilian art form that combines elements of martial arts, music, and dance. Capoeria performer & teacher Eric Marinho brings this extraordinary art form to young children eager to channel energy. Ages 3-5

CLASS FULL

Yoga 2:00-2:45 (Wed), $12.50/class

Come Play and Breathe with us! Through stories, games, movement, and conversations, classes focus on themes designed specifically for children and their creative imaginations and growing bodies. Ages 3-5

CLASS FULL

Make Art* 2:00-3:00 (Mon), $12.50/class

Make Art is an easy hands on approach to outdoor arts and crafts utilizing recycled materials. This class encourages creativity within a 'no walls' environment. Ages 2-5.

Spanish 2:15-2:45 (Mon), 3:30-4 (Wed), $12.50

Kindergarten teacher Gabby Padilla's introduction to Spanish for kids focuses on basic conversational skills learned through songs, storytelling and games. Note: This class meets both Monday and Wednesday. Ages 3-5.

German 4:00-4:45 (Wed), $12.50/class

Taught by a German native, this class introduces children in a playful way to the German language and culture. Hands-on methods, art and craft activities, music, games as well as language arts will lead the children step by step to language proficiency. Ages 5-9.

Lego Playgroup 4:00-5:00 (Wed), $10/class

Children will be given the opportunity to engage their imagination and build on mathematic skills through engineering different Lego creations. Children will work in groups lead by older children who have participated in previous Master Lego Workshops. Each week participants will focus on a theme and each class will end in a sharing circle where all the groups will share their creations. At the end of the 6 week session, each child will be given a small packet of materials including a motor to take home with them.
